This publication might be worthy of a read through, and superior to other. It normally is not going to charge excessive. Its been written in an remarkably simple way and is particularly just after i finished reading through this book through which in fact transformed me, alter the way i really believe.

Johnson, Esq, one of the committee, proceeded to the German counties with two of the Poles who spoke German fluently. He visited Lancaster, Gettysburg, Chambersburg, York, c. c., in order not merely to procure situations for those who accompanied him, but, if possible, to make provision and permanent arrangements for providing employment for more of their countrymen. This excursion, though of salutary tendency, did not produce all the good consequences that were anticipated. In Lancaster, collections were made to the amount of $150, and aid was also given to Poles passing through the above towns. But employment, the grand object sought, was procured for very few. Hence considerable numbers of the Poles, whose travelling expenses were paid by the committee to go to towns in the interior of the state, to Baltimore, c., in quest of employment, returned completely disappointed and disheartened. Their expenses of travelling, and those of Mr. Johnson and his companions, made a considerable inroad into our slender finances. The failure of success in the applications for employment, arose partly from the general stagnation of business at that period throughout the Union, which threw out of employment great numbers of our own citizens, who, in any competition, were sure of a preference over strangers unaccustomed to our manners and customs. It arose partly also, from the difficulty, not to say the impossibility, in which nearly the whole of them were placed by their inability at the commencement, and for some time afterwards, to make themselves understood in our language. It is unnecessary to descant on...
