Createspace, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Keys to the CASTLE: Mentor in a Book, provides readers with everything they need to know to get through the college admissions process with less stress and more success: (1) how to position yourself, how to polish your leadership skills, and how to present your best self to admissions officers. This edition consists of ALL THREE VOLUMES in one value package, including two (2) BONUS reports a $14 value for FREE. A must-read for those who want to find the right college for them, write a good college essay, ace the interviews, get glowing letters of recommendation, and GET IN! *** I really liked the way that each lesson was concisely delivered in a way that was easy to understand and apply. I feel that often programs that are supposed to help students to get into college make things seem much more complicated then they need to be, and these lessons made perfect sense and were interesting. I also liked how you shared personal experiences. - C. Huff I am a parent of a high school aged child and we re looking to get our child into the very best college or university we can possibly help him get into. I m the product of a state school and I was looking to get my son into an Ivy League school or another top college but I didn t know how to do it. That s when I found out about Kamala Appel s program. What s really remarkable about Kamala is that she comes from a non traditional background and yet she was able to get into an Ivy League school, accel in the university system, and...
