California Interest. quote;At the last dusty town in a line of dusty towns,quote; Clementine s story begins. In OH MY DARLING, Cate O Toole has constructed a winding narrative with many pathways, each road following the fifteen year-old miner s daughter, immortalized in the American folk canon by her namesake ballad, through a journey laced with triumph and ruin at every turn. As Clementine navigates the perils and risks of the old Westfrom her father s land claim in the California goldfields to a San Francisco boarding house to the promise of the mountains, the plains, the riveryou decide where the story will go. With O Toole s sharp, clever prose as your guide, your decisions steer Clementine s fate. Gone but not forgotten, Clementine shines at the narrative s core, fighting for her future, aching to be more than quote;a tangle of bones, a handful of dust scattered by the wind.quote; quote;What wondrous and magical stories Cate O Toole has woven in these dark, revisionist tales of Clementine, who comes powerfully and heartbreakingly alive under O Toole s...
