But the directors persevered with faithfulness, and they should have the praise of it. At that day, the virtue of punctuality was esteemed at least as highly as it is now; but both then and now, appliances of some kind were, and still are, necessary to secure it. Punctuality at the monthly and othermeetings of the directors, was at that time secured or promoted by a fine upon the absentees, two shillings upon the director who did not attend at all, and half that sum upon him who was absent at the appointed hour of meeting. A remembrancer of a different kind has been substituted in modern times. In London, I believe, the modern expedient in similar cases, Life Insurance Companies in particular, is to pay a guinea to those who give full attendance. Our fashion here, is to give at the monthly meeting, a reasonably good dinner and a segar. The other meetings, which in the form of committees, are frequent and almost daily, are performed fasting. But while we know how this remembrancer is disposed of by us, and may conjecture how the London guinea or sovereign is disposed of, what do you suppose was the use to which our forefathers applied that fund of treasury fines which was accumulated by the defaults of...
