Reviews

I just began reading this pdf. It is actually written in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Jesus answered them, and said, my doctrine is not mine but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. --John VII, 16 and 17. A few words will suffice to put us in possession of the circumstances which elicited from Jesus the declaration of our text. He has been speaking to the people out of the wealth of his spiritual experience, and in so doing has taught the doctrine of the new birth and of the spiritual meat and drink which the doing of the father s will provides for the newborn child of God. The Jews who hear him are not only astonished at his erudition but are also scandalized by the fact that he is an unauthorized teacher. Jesus is a layman and not a cleric. He has never attended the Theological Seminary in Jerusalem, neither has he been graduated as a Rabbi or properly commissioned as a Rabbi s assistant. He is, in short, a free lance. The people, therefore, want to know by what authority he purposes to support his doctrine. The Scribes teach their doctrines on the authority of Moses and the Prophets. Here are certain maxims, tenets, principles, they say. They are to be proved from Holy Writ. They are the precepts of the Fathers: they are the traditional faith. Hence the true Israelite...
